Valdosta Technical College, Valdosta and Sparks: Addition of four hospitals and two nursing homes: Berrien County Hospital, Nashville (8 students); Berrien County Nursing center, Nashville (14 students); Memorial Hospital of Adel, Adel (8 students); Memorial Convalescent Center of Adel, Adel (12 students); South Georgia Medical Center, Valdosta (42 students); Smith Northview Hospital, Valdosta (4 students). The Board accepted the plan to rotate all students from both campuses through all facilities, all clinical affiliates approved because requirements were met.

Curriculum Revisions

Southeastern Technical College, Vidalia: Defer request for "Nurse Technician" while awaiting further information.

Valdosta Technical College, Sparks: Fifteen month Curriculum plan provides for a total of 810 hours, 640 in required content and a total of 720 clinical hours.

New Programs and/or Satellites:

FAKS Allied Health Education Center: Request further information on the RN Director for the proposed new program. Hold development of the program until proof of meeting requirements of sponsorship pursuant to rules.

His Majesty Inc. International Institute of Health Professionals: Hold development until proof of meeting requirements of sponsorship pursuant to rules.

Valdosta Technical College, Sparks: Accepted the initial materials submitted, approved as indicated because they meet requirements and this campus will be visited as soon as possible during 2003. The proposed new program may be granted "Provisional Approval Status" at its initial site visit, provided all facilities are satisfactory.

Annual Reports for July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002

The following schools were granted full approval status because of their pass percentage rates for the January through June 30, 2002 period:

Coastal Georgia Community College, Brunswick 83.3%
Okefenokee Technical College, Waycross, 94.4%
West Central Technical College, Carrollton and Waco, 88.2

Ms. Starr provided the Board members with copies of the preliminary reports.

Nursing Faculty and/or Preceptor Changes:

Altamaha Technical College, Baxley: One full-time and three part-time, with only one part-time instructor active. One preceptor was eliminated because she has a Public Board Order against her license.

Athens Technical College, Athens: One part-time was hired and approved because she met the requirements.
